majority. This was just and right, and reflects the will of the people. The people of Tennessee intend to guaranmeturity of such interest people of Tennessee intend to guarantee the blacks all that is claimed for them in the proposed amendment, but they do not recognize the right of any other power to do it for them. The war gave freedom to the negro, and his good and the peace of the country demand that he also be clothed with the privilege of the ballot-box, but the 15th amendment is subversive of the principles of republican government. Indeed, so incompatible is it to other articles of the Constitution, that able men maintain, that it will be null and void even if it succeeds in being ratiby the requsite number of States.

The State Convention.

The Legislature, after several week's delay, consumed in discussion of questions already practically settled by precedent and common sense, has agreed to authorize the Governor to call a convention of the people. The committee on Federal relations reported on the fifteenth amendment, recommending its rejection, a minority report being presented by Mr. Baker in favor of its ratification. The reports were made the special order for 11 o'clock his morning.
